KELLY-PAPKE BOUT A DRAW.Italian Shows Effects of Lay-off and Weight.Spring Valley Boy Battles in Whirlwind Style.Hugo Scores Knockdown for the Count of Five.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 30.—(Exclusive) [Special.] In one of the fiercest ring battles ever seen in this city, Billy Papke of Spring Valley and Hugo Kelly of Chicago fought a ten-round draw.
A great number of the audience thought Papke was entitled to the decision, but in general the decision of referee Malachi Hogan was well received.The boy from Spring Valley justified every way his reputation as a whirlwind fighter while the Italian did not show his customary form. He showed no effects of his long lay-off in the fight and the effort he was forced to make to weigh 154 pounds at 3 o'clock.
Throughout the fight Papke was in the lead, and not for one instant did he let himself be taken down. He was a punching machine, especially in the latter half of the fight, and he was the only one who was able to land a blow on Kelly's head.The first round was Kelly's by a side margin. He started in with a punch, Papke going into the clinch after an exchange of body blows. The two men then went into the first exchange Papke going down with a right swing to the jaw, for the count of five.The second round was Papke's and he third was even. Kelly doing most of the leading, but Papke putting some strong blows about the jaw.The fourth was Papke's round. Kelly going to the knee with a right swing to the jaw.Round five was about even with a knockdown to Kelly, but it was a slow knockdown.The sixth round was perhaps a shade in favor of Kelly, although he was knocked and hanging on most of the time.
Kelly had a right lead again in the seventh round. He led most of the time and put frequent rights to Papke's jaw and stomach, but Kelly was not defeated.Kelly also had a shade in the eighth round, but whatever lead the Italian had was wiped out before the time was up. The ninth round was a valley whirlwind in the ninth round.In the tenth the Keweenaw boy showed in with a perfect tornado of blows but failed to land. Both men were tired but fighting furiously when the bell rang.

BALDWIN WINNER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Matty Baldwin of this city earned the decision over Johnny Summers of England in their twelve-round bout at the Winstanley Athletic Club, Chelsea, Mass., tonight.It was a rugged battle all the way through. Baldwin, the Mexican, kept Baldwin's stomach from the tap of the gong in the first round till the end.
His fast infighting and the way he worked the corners of the ring were the main reasons for his victory.In the last few rounds Summers showed a flash of fast fighting, but the effects of Baldwin's body punches showed him down and Matty was never in danger.

JEFFRIES TALKS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—James J. Jeffries, the retired champion, was here tonight to see the fight between the world, who is to referee the Moran-Atell contest for the featherweight championship of the world, arrived here today from Los Angeles. Referring to the coming contest, he said:"I hear that the Englishman is a tough nut. If he is the man they say he is, he ought to give Atell a hard rub, but I won't attempt to make the winner. It wouldn't be the right thing to do."Jeffries vigorously denied the imputation published in the East, that he was inclined to favor the Englishman.
He added:"All I can say is that both fighters will look alike to me, as they always have. If they clinch and hold on, I will step in and break them, but so long as they keep fighting, I will interfere. They can fight their heads off, and the harder they fight the better I will be. I will be there to see less work for me. Moran need not have any fear about me butting in.
When I was fighting I liked to have my referee officiate."

MEMSIC-UNHOLZ.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

Rudolph Unholz, who is to fight George Mensic Friday night at East Side Junction, has cut out hard work and will do no more boxing this week.
He has taken this move in order to raise his weight from 135 to the required 150 pounds, at 3 o'clock, Friday. Unholz may make a possible exception to the "no boxing" rule on New Year's Day, and give a short exhibition to the visiting fans, but outside of that he will confine his activities to road work and exercise in the gymnasium at East Side.Unholz says that if he should continue to work as hard as he did last week, he would soon be down to 125 pounds. Mensic, on the other hand, will be forced to exert himself to the utmost in order to get down to the required weight, but Unholz says he will fight him regardless of whether he makes weight or not.The boxer champion is in fine condition, and yesterday tipped the scales at 154 pounds. He is a very hard fighter, and with plenty of light exercise and a good appetite he will be in great shape for his fight with Mensic, Friday night.
Unholz is understood by the fight fans, who concede him little chance with Mensic. He has an excellent guard, and can deliver some terrific punches. He is expected to be particularly keen to land left hand jolts and Unholz has a bad one wrapped up in this arm, and may nail Mensic unexpectedly.The odds in the light betting are 10 to 7 in favor of Mensic, but there are many "wise ones" who will take the short end. The fight will apparently be between Mensic's cleverness and Unholz's steady determination to land the final punch.Reports from the training camp of Mensic indicate that he is not gettingHugo Kelly, who fought Bill Papke a ten-round draw at Milwaukee, last night.CAMP SELECTS ALL-STAR TEAM.SURPRISING CHOICE OF VALE'S FOOTBALL AUTHORITY.Men Generally Selected From Big Teams Are Relegated to Second and Third Eleven While Others Men Are Chosen for First Team—Casper Whitney's Choice.Closing the discussion as to what football players of the recent season earned places on the All-American football team are the selections of Casper Whitney and Walter Camp.
Just announced, Whitney's selections differ in but two positions from those made by The Times several weeks ago, from a consensus of opinions by eastern coaches and football writers.Whitney's eleven consists of Carlisle ahead of Alcott of Yale, at right end.
Alcott he named as the substitute end.
Erwin of West Point he makes left guard over Thompson of Cornell.The All-American team named by Whitney is: House, Carlisle, full back; Wendell, Harvard, and Cay, Yale, half-backs; Jones, Yale, captain and quarterback; Grant, Harvard, center; Erwin, West Point, and Ziegler, Pennsylvania, guards; Draper, Pennsylvania, and Bigelow, Yale, tackles; Wister, Princeton, and Exendine, Carlisle, ends.Walter Camp's eleven upsets all the other selections of the great majority of the critics. House of Carlisle and Wister of Princeton he relegates to the third team, and Coy of Yale and Exendine of Carlisle he places with the second-team players, and Thompson of Cornell as well. The most surprising choice of Camp is that of Schulte of Michigan over Grant of Harvard, for center. His selections follow:First eleven—End, Danton, Annapolis, tackle, Draper, Pennsylvania;
guard, Ziegler, Pennsylvania; center, Schulte, Michigan; guard, Erwin, West Point; tackle, Bigelow, Yale; and Alcott, Yale, quarter, Jones, Yale; halfback, Wendell, Harvard; half-back, Harvard; Princeton; full back, McCormick, Princeton.Second eleven—End, Exendine, Carlisle; tackle, House, Syracuse; guard, Riley, Princeton; center, Grant, Harvard; guard, Thompson, Cornell; tackle, O'Rourke, Cornell; end, Scarlett, Pennsylvania; quarter, Draper, Pennsylvania; half-back, Mark, Dartmouth;
half-back, Hollenbeck, Pennsylvania;
full back, Coy, Yale.Third eleven—End, Wister, Princeton; tackle, Lang, Dartmouth; quarter, Goebel, Yale; center, Phillips, Princeton; guard, Kridler, Dartmouth;
tackle, Wister, Princeton; guard, Mc-Donald, Harvard; quarter, Stephen, Chicago; half-back, Capron, Minnesota; half-back, Exendine, Carlisle; full back, Douglas, Annapolis.

long-distance runner, has sent in his entry for the four-hour race, which will take place at Palace Hall, this evening. He is the only foreigner to enter the race, which is the greatest athletic event ever produced.He has won six six-day races. With him he has the Cuban runner, also a competitor in this race, he took third place in the last six-day team race in Madison Square Garden. Manager Rennell is endeavoring to secure Wilson, the English road runner, who last July ran ten miles on the Middlesex (England) road in fifty-seven minutes.
This is considered the fastest road run ever made.

BROOKLYN, Dec. 30.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) One Guernsey, the Mexican long-distance runner, has sent in his
entry for the four-hour race, which
athletic event ever produced.He has won six six-day races. With
a competitor in this race, he took third place in the last six-day team race in Madison Square Garden. Manager
Rennell is endeavoring to secure Wilson, the English road runner, who last July ran ten miles on the Middlesex
(England) road in fifty-seven minutes.
This is considered the fastest road run ever made.The L. A. squad had planned a trip to San Francisco to meet an all-star eleven, picked from the different high schools in the Academic League, on New Year's day, but Coach Sorenson was notified yesterday that the scheduled game was called off because sev-

Talent Hammers
The BookmakersFAVORITES CASH IN ON ONE OF THE RARE OCCASIONS.Belt Cast Out for Races of the Week by Allowing First Choice to Win—Winners in Most Races Just Breathed In, With Many Lengths to Spare—Only Dogs Entered.Four favorites won at Santa Anita Park yesterday, and in the other two races a second and a third choice were almost as well played as the favorites, so the talent had a fair day in a lot of poor races, with only dogs entered.The second race was a good one for the favorite, with a rush in the last furlong, coming up on the inside rail, but the Sultan came faster from fifth place at the head of the stretch and won.Jack was an odds-on favorite at 1 to 2, in the feature at seven furlongs, but he only won by a length from Sir Edward, the second choice at 3 to 1. However, he came up from the rear under the urging of his jockey, and overhauled Sir Edward.Orville, at 9 to 10, apparently had usable legs, and he won by a length from the 5-to-1 shot J. R. Laughey, which pushed the mare hard in the stretch and made her drive it out by half a length. The favorite, Whitney, who had not to spare, as in her other races.All the other races were won easily by the favorites, and the talent was not disappointed. Whitney's selections differ in but two positions from those
made by The Times several weeks ago,
from a consensus of opinions by eastern coaches and football writers.Whitney's eleven consists of Carlisle ahead of Alcott of Yale, at right end.
Alcott he named as the substitute end.
Erwin of West Point he makes left
guard over Thompson of Cornell.The All-American team named by Whitney is: House, Carlisle, full back;
Wendell, Harvard, and Cay, Yale, half-
backs; Jones, Yale, captain and quarterback; Grant, Harvard, center; Er-
win, West Point, and Ziegler, Pennsylvania, guards; Draper, Pennsylvania,
and Bigelow, Yale, tackles; Wister, Princeton, and Exendine, Carlisle,
ends.Walter Camp's eleven upsets all the other selections of the great majority of
the critics. House of Carlisle and Wister
of Princeton he relegates to the third
team, and Coy of Yale and Exendine of Carlisle he places with the second-team players, and Thompson of Cornell
as well. The most surprising choice of Camp is that of Schulte of Michigan over Grant of Harvard, for
center. His selections follow:First eleven—End, Danton, Annapolis, tackle, Draper, Pennsylvania;
guard, Ziegler, Pennsylvania; center,
Schulte, Michigan; guard, Erwin, West
Point; tackle, Bigelow, Yale; and Al-
cott, Yale, quarter, Jones, Yale; halfback, Wendell, Harvard; half-back, Harvard; Princeton; full back, McCormick, Princeton.Second eleven—End, Exendine, Carlisle; tackle, House, Syracuse; guard, Riley, Princeton; center, Grant, Harvard; guard, Thompson, Cornell; tackle, O'Rourke, Cornell; end, Scarlett,
Pennsylvania; quarter, Draper, Pennsylvania; half-back, Mark, Dartmouth;
half-back, Hollenbeck, Pennsylvania;
full back, Coy, Yale.Third eleven—End, Wister, Princeton; tackle, Lang, Dartmouth; quarter, Goebel, Yale; center, Phillips, Princeton; guard, Kridler, Dartmouth;
tackle, Wister, Princeton; guard, Mc-Donald, Harvard; quarter, Stephen,
Chicago; half-back, Capron, Minnesota; half-back, Exendine, Carlisle; full back, Douglas, Annapolis.

Race Course.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The greatest closing of stakes in the history of racing in America will take place next Thursday when, under the agreement between the three great clubs that control racing at Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach and Gravesend, the entries for the big events of the next week will be closing.A total of sixty stakes for the spring meetings and ten additional events for later meetings will be closed on that day. The total value of the stakes is closed being only a trifle under $500,000.
The Brooklyn Handicap, the suburban and the Brighton Handicaps will be among the events closed. The values of the Brooklyn and the suburban have been raised this year to $25,000, the value of the Brighton.NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 30.—City Park

HAS HIGH REGARD FOR AMERICANS.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—"We shall take back home with us to Japan only the kindest feelings for America and for her people, and the highest regard for her institutions," said Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador, to an Associated Press representative today, just prior to his departure for San Francisco, from which port he sails for home on January 7.

The Japanese Emperor desires to converse freely with the Ambassador on American topics, mainly the immigration question, and for this purpose he was recalled. Viscount Aoki has represented his country here for about a year and a half, and for that time has manifested the utmost activity in all matters affecting his countrymen. He was the first Ambassador accredited to the United States from Japan, and because of his extensive experience in the diplomatic service, he was regarded as especially qualified for the important duties which demanded his attention here.

He said today his relations with the American government always had been of a most agreeable and pleasant character, and that his treatment by the Washington government had been uniformly courteous and considerate. He had learned here a great deal that was important to him, and it was with much regret that he and Viscountess Aoki were to leave the hospitable shores of America.

"I am confident that an amicable agreement will be reached on the immigration question—the only one of any consequence that is now agitating the people of the two countries," said Aoki. "I am certain that Japan will make every honorable concession within bounds, and I feel equally confident that the American government will not insist upon anything unreasonable or that will in any way compromise the dignity or the honor of the Japanese government. Both governments are striving to reach an honorable solution of the immigration question, and the latest advice that we have received from our government indicates that the way is being gradually paved with that in view."

"As I have said again and again, there is every reason in the world why both countries should have the most complete understanding and continue in most amicable relations. Japan is anxious to be at peace with the United States, and to do this she applies with greater force than to the United States, to whom in a large measure is due Japan's great rise among the nations of the world."

DOUBLY SURPRISED.

Railroad Man Finds Missing Trunks in Hands of Police, and Finds Also Warrant for His Arrest.

When F. C. Houghton, a railroad man, identified two trunks at Central Police Station last night as his property he was arrested on the charge of defrauding a hotel-keeper. His bail was fixed at $25, which his wife deposited.

According to the complaint, Houghton and his wife had lived for several months in an apartment house conducted by Mrs. Alice E. Love, at Pico and Figueroa streets. Last week while Mrs. Love was away, it is charged, Houghton packed his trunks and sent them to the Santa Fe depot. Before they were shipped Mrs. Love secured an attachment and the trunks were seized.

For several days Houghton waited for his trunks. Learning that they had been claimed by some other person, he went to the Police station, where he found the trunks and a warrant.

HOUSED BY A LABOR UNION.

Blacklisted Cigar-maker, Unable to Secure Work, Decides to Kill Himself, but Police Intervene.

Blacklisted by the Cigar-makers' Union and unable to get work, Ramon Rodriguez sought to take his life last night, but was arrested before he could accomplish it. When taken to the receiving hospital he said that he had been dependent for several days and decided to commit suicide.

Rodriguez attempted to purchase carbolic acid at Godfrey & Moore's drug store. The clerk asked him what he wanted it for, but, receiving no reply, told Rodriguez to wait a moment and then notified the police.

Rodriguez came to Los Angeles several weeks ago from Chicago, where he had trouble with the Cigar-makers' Union, of which he was a member. He sought work here, but was unable to find employment on account of the trouble he had in Chicago. For several days he has been without funds.

GENTLE WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Andrew G. Park, Eleven Years an Invalid, Passes Away, Surrounded by Her Family.

Mrs. Mary Adeline Park, wife of Andrew G. Park, passed away last night at her home, No. 1723 West Twenty-third street, aged 54 years. The deceased was a native of Lexington, Tenn., and had been a resident of California for twenty-one years and of Los Angeles for seven years. For eleven years she had been an invalid, patient, loving and kind, and idolized by her husband and children. It was fitting that her end should be peaceful and quiet as the setting sun, surrounded by her entire family, she passed gently away like a little child. Besides her husband she leaves two sons and five daughters. They are Mrs. Newman Jones, Mrs. J. W. Sprague, Misses Maud, Clara and Laura Park, Theodore Park and Frank Park, all of this city.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the West Adams Methodist Church. The service being conducted by Dr. E. H. McClish, her pastor.

Try Out New Players.

Several new players have joined the Christopher-Levy team, and were instrumental in holding Santa Ana down to a 5-to-4 score Sunday. Trotter, who is signed for a tryout with San Francisco Coast League team in the spring, is the new twirler, and Butrick of the same team, has been signed as catcher. Kimmery is a new first baseman, who has materially strengthened the team. Sunday a double-header will be played with the Edisons, either at Chutes Park or at Santa Ana.

Col. Marshall Murdock, editor of the Wichita (Kan.) Daily Eagle, suffered a hemorrhage last night, and his physicians have little hope of his recovery. Col. Murdock is suffering from a catarrhal condition of the stomach. He is 78 years of age, and is one of the oldest and best-known newspaper men in the Southwest.

THE New Year's Midwinter Number of The Times, next to a latest friend or acquaintance, will convey an accurate, picturesque description of Southern California, graphically and interestingly compiled. The number from the "Land of Sunshine" will be appreciated in the Midwinter Number of The Times, and will prove a benefit to this rich region besides.

MODERN METHODS OF ACCOUNTING have been brought to their high standard of perfection by the adoption of the Loose Leaf Systems.

The Twinlock Perpetual Systems and Devices

More fully meet the demands and are better constructed than any others on the market. We are the agents here, and carry in stock a complete line of these devices, together with all the regular stock forms and special rulings suitable for most every form of business. If you require some special ruling not in stock, we will make it for you.

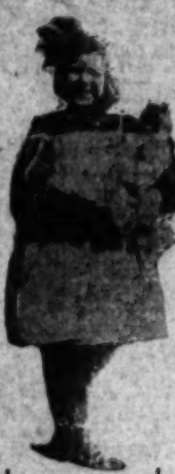

The Twinlock ledgers and binders are the strongest and best on the market—the only ledger having a double lock controlled by one key. The Current ledgers can be furnished in round or flat backs. The Loose Leaf System does away with the opening of new ledgers yearly or when old ledgers are filled.

The Twinlock Loose Leaf Invoice Books, Perpetual Trial Balances, Monthly Statement Systems, etc., are valuable improvements over the old style methods. We will gladly explain them to you any time.

EXPLODED MYTH.

DRUCE COFFIN
HOLDS A BODY.

HUMAN REMAINS, INSTEAD OF ROLL OF LEAD, FOUND.

Vault Opened to Settle Case Against Estate of Duke of Portland and Many Witnesses Shown to Be Perjurers—Settle for Vast Wealth Definitely Disposed of.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) LONDON, Dec. 30.—The body of Thomas Charles Druce, in Highgate Cemetery, was exhumed today, just forty-three years to a day after its burial. The coffin was found to contain the remains of a human body, thus exploding the romantic tale told by Robert C. Caldwell and others who swore during the recent hearing of the Druce perjury case that it contained a roll of lead.

The official statement given out by representatives of the Home Office and others, who were officially present at the exhumation not only definitely dismisses the lead myth, but seems effectively to prove that the body buried in 1864 was actually that of T. C.
Druce. The authorized statement follows:

"The coffin was opened and found to contain the body of an aged, bearded man; the date on the coffin bore the name 'Thomas Charles Druce.'"

REMARKABLE SCENE.

The scene at Highgate Cemetery this morning, when the vault was opened, was remarkable. Constables seemed to spring from everywhere. Every high and every tree apparently hid an officer of the law. All the entrances to the cemetery were guarded by police. Only those persons who had passed from the Home Office were admitted to the grounds.

George Hollander Druce, who claims that he is the rightful heir to the Portland Dukedom and to its vast estate, tried twice to get into the cemetery, but was met with a stern refusal.

The operation began at day-break with the removal of the topmost cof-fine in the vault, containing the bodies of the wife and son of T. C. Druce.

It was nearly 11:30 o'clock before the coffin, the contents of which have aroused the curiosity of the whole world, was brought up ready for opening and inspection. The top was quickly unsealed, and the inner coffin of lead cut open. There was no need for the dictum of the eminent surgeon, Augustus Pepper, who was appointed by the Home Office to carry out the exhumation, to assure all present that human remains lay in the coffin.

MYSTERY ENDED.

The Druce vault has thus given up its secret, after ten years of legal proceedings, which have cost, all told, a considerable fortune. A large part of this money was obtained from servants, girls and other workers, who were induced to buy shares in a company formed to prosecute the claims of George Hollander Druce against the estate of the Duke of Portland.

The charges of perjury against Herbert Druce is effectively disposed of.
Those persons who have sworn to the placing of lead, instead of a human body, in the coffin have been arrested, and they will have to take the consequences of their act.

So far as the public is concerned, the entire long-drawn-out Druce-Duke of Portland controversy is at an end, and the case of the claimant, George Hollander Druce, has fallen to the ground.

Despite the finding of the body, George H. Druce says that he is determined to continue to push his claim for the estate and title of the Portland Dukedom. In an interview today he said:

"It is foolish to deny that I am bitterly disappointed, but I have not abandoned hope. I am prepared to admit that the man known as Thomas Charles Druce was buried in Highgate Cemetery, but this does not dispose of my case. I will not admit that the body exhumed is the body of my grandfather, whom I still firmly believe was the Duke of Portland."

George H. Druce also expressed dissatisfaction that a further examination of the grave was not made for the purpose of ascertaining whether a coffin containing lead was also buried there.

FATALLY SHOOT HIMSELF.

Dependancy Following a Spruce Cause Robert Gamble to Send a Bullet Into His Head.

Robert Gamble, aged 36 years, sought to end his life about 11 o'clock last night by shooting himself through the head, in his room at the East First street. He was taken to the Resolving Hospital where an operation was performed, in an effort to save his life.

Gamble had been drinking heavily for several days and was dependant on account of being out of work. When he went to his room last night, he stood in front of a mirror and fired a bullet into his brain. The shot was heard by Mrs. E. C. Nicholson, the landlady, who reported the case to the police. Gamble registered at Mrs.
Nicholson's place Sunday night. He has no relatives in Los Angeles. He came to Los Angeles about two weeks ago.

ON HUNT TO THE GULF.

Summer Searchlight to Carry Party, Headed by Gen. Sherman, Down the Colorado River Yuma.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) YUMA (Ariz.) Dec. 30.—The summer searchlight, purchased last week by the Southern Pacific, was today engaged to take Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, Gen. M. H. Sherman, Maj. John H.
Morton, and six other distinguished California men from Yuma to the Gulf of California. The party will leave here Friday afternoon.

The party will be in charge of Gen.
Sherman. An escort of Indian guides has been retained. On the searchlight will be carried batboats, which the party will use in exploring parts of the Channel Islands. The trip is arranged for a joint exploring and hunting expedition. Considerable mystery surrounds the territory adjacent to the mouth of the Colorado River, and the explorers may bring back the first authentic reports of some of this new land.

Following the cruise among the Can-cal Islands the party will go on a hunting trip up the Hardy River into the foothills of the Coast Range.
Hunters who have returned from this territory say that it contains what are probably the finest hunting grounds in America.

COMMON ERRORS ABOUT EYES.

Why There Are Few Cross-Eyed Persons—Reasons Why Wearing Glasses Is Beneficial.

One of the most noteworthy advantages of the present epoch is that more eyes are almost unknown. Likewise cross eyes. Even as short a time as a generation ago it was a common thing to see people of all ages and conditions with inflamed eyes. As for strabismus, one does not notice a case of it now and then, but it is very exceptional.

A generation ago cross eyes were regarded as a hopeless misfortune. There was nothing that could be done. A child thus afflicted was obliged to go through life with one eye looking inward, or outward, as the case might be. It was not only a deformity, but a misfortune in other ways; for a person who is badly cross eyed sees out of only one eye.

Nowadays, however, says in rare instances, the matter can be set right by a simple surgical operation. If the eyes are not too badly crossed they can also be straightened by properly fitted glasses and muscular exercises.
It is mainly for this reason that one sees so few persons who are cross eyed, as compared with a few years ago. As for sore eyes, they are cured, or prevented, by glasses which correct the trouble, such as near sight or astigmatism, which are the cause of the mischief.

Perhaps the most curious of the many absurd popular notions about eyes is that which causes people to refrain from wearing needed glasses for the reason that "if they once put them on, they will always have to use them." In such a belief there is only one germ of truth. When glasses that are needed have once been adopted, nobody is ever willing to give them up, simply because the improvement of vision, or gain in comfort, is such that they quickly make themselves indispensable.
There is scarce anything about which popular ignorance is so profound as it is in regard to eyes. Ever so many people will confess to wearing glasses for astigmatism; but ask one of them what astigmatism is, and the answer, if any, is a random guess. Yet astigmatism is simply an irregularity in the curvature of the cornea, which is set in the front of the eye like a watch glass. One often hears it said that oculists occasionally take out eyes, clean them, and put them back; yet nothing could be more impossible without destroying the sight. When "old sight" comes, as it does to all normal eyes at fifty years or earlier, complaint is made that the sight is "failing"; but the fact is that the eyes are as good as ever, but need mild convex glasses to help the focus at the near point. Cataract is supposed to be a film over the eye, whereas it is really an opacity of the crystalline lens, behind the pupil. To such absurd beliefs, indeed, there is no end.—(Sunday

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Land Office to Move.

The local United States Land Office will be moved from its present quarters at North Broadway and Court streets to the Chamber of Commerce building within a short time. The present quarters are inadequate to accommodate the business.

Fugitive Back for Trial.

Walter Hutchinson, who was arrested in San Diego several days ago on a charge of burglary, was brought to Los Angeles last night. He is accused of entering a room at the Empress rooming-house and stealing $15 and a watch.

Small Bankruptcy Cases.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court yesterday by the Stevens Manufacturing Company of Los Angeles. Liquidation was fixed at $335, and assets at $250. Hymer Schaffer, a local merchant, filed a bankruptcy petition, giving his liabilities as $250 and assets about $250.

Substantial Cheer for Widow.

The paragraph in The Times on Saturday morning, concerning the destitute condition of the widow of L. Minelli, who lives at No. 25 Avenue 18, with her five children, and announcing the donation of $1 by two ladies, brought another contribution of $5 from an unknown source and the money—$6—was delivered to her yesterday.

Welsh Concert Tonight.

The Welsh competitive concert, which will be given tonight in Burbank Hall by the Canby-American Society, promises to be an entertainment of much interest and has enlisted the support of the entire Welsh colony and their friends. Among the attractions will be Maurel Bonardieu, tenor of the Royal Opera Company, London.

Hearing January 15.

Col. D. W. Lockwood and Lieut. Col. S. S. Leach, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., will arrive in this city about January 15, to make an inspection of the breakwater at San Pedro and to examine the proposed plans for dredging Wilmington, and eliminating the trestles now in use by transportation companies. A hearing has been set for January 15. It will be held either at Wilmington or San Pedro. The public is invited.

Help for Mexicans.

Mexican laborers, left destitute here through the cessation of activities on railroads, are to have financial aid through the local Mexican consulate in reaching their former homes in Mexico. The Southern Pacific has arranged to grant for transportation to several hundred of the indigents, and the funds furnished by their government will aid them in getting to their destination in time.

Doing Needed Street Work.

The street department has begun to clean and grade the intersecting streets from Central avenue east to 34th avenue. Thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh streets have been cleared of weeds, and gutters have been made, and the work will be continued south of Vernon avenue. It is the policy of the department to work as rapidly as possible on the streets which are most in need of repair.

Reception by Texans.

A reception and dance was given by members of the Four Thousand Texas Club last night at No. 374 South Hill street. The program included a song by Mrs. Ruth T. Schneider, recitation by Miss Helen Craig, piano solo by Mrs. Anna L. Weinhaugen, and brief addresses by both Stewart, Dr. G. C. Kelly and Attorney Thornton. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

President-manager Resigns.

Capt. Benjamin Johnson, president of the Los Angeles Furniture Company, after serving the company in various capacities for eighteen years, has resigned his position, which involved the entire management of the business, and will retire today. He explains that this move is made necessary by the rapid growth of other interests. Before resigning activities, however, he will spend a few days in recuperating and the enjoyment of a needed rest.

New Bridge Completed.

The cement bridge on Harvard boulevard, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, has been completed and vehicles can be driven from that portion of Pico Heights lying north of Tenth and west of Jamine streets to Pico street. Agitation has been begun by residents of Irolo street, between Ninth and Twelfth streets, for a similar bridge over that part of a wash which cuts through their thoroughfare.

Must Face Three Charges.

H. S. McGuire, a liverman, who was arrested in San Diego last Thursday, was brought back to Los Angeles last night to face three charges of embezzlement. He is accused in one complaint of selling a horse for $150 which belonged to Dr. Willie H. Hutchinson and appropriating the money to his own use. In another complaint he is charged with selling a horse and buggy which was the property of J. L. Patterson, a real estate man.

From Store to Theater.

Over 500 employees of Hamburger's enjoyed the performance of "Way Down East" at the Los Angeles Theater last night, through the generosity of A. Hamburger & Sons, proprietors of the great store Sunday night. The rest of the 600 employees attended the performance. Superintendent W. R. Bailey heading both parties. The employees had seats on the lower floor and gave the actors a rousing reception on each occasion. The theater parties were arranged for Sunday and Monday nights in order to prevent their interference with the New Year plans of the employees of the store.

Rhodes Scholarship Examinations.

President Bear of Occidental has received Dr. George R. Parkin, Seymour House, London, authority to make arrangements for the Rhodes scholarship examinations to be held in California in three centers: University of California, Stanford University and Occidental College. The following examinations will be carried out at the three institutions: Tuesday, January 1, 9 to 11 a.m., translation from Latin into English; 1 to 3 p.m., Latin prose; 4 to 6 p.m., arithmetic. Wednesday, January 2, 9 to 11 a.m., translation from Greek into English; 1 to 3 p.m., Latin grammar; 3 to 5 p.m., Greek grammar; 5 to 6 p.m., algebra or geometry.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

Miss Olive Sullivan, who will assist at a pretty function Saturday afternoon.

D. R. AND MRS. A. P. BLISS entertained recently with a dinner party, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Newton of Santa Barbara, who have been visiting in this city for the past week. Holly berries and ferns were combined in an attractive table centerpiece and covers were laid for twelve.

In Honor of Miss Mullen.

In honor of Miss Katherine Mullen, Miss Ida Hancock of No. 883 Carondelet street entertained with a box party at the Mason Saturday afternoon, and a luncheon at Christopher's. Guests were Miss Mullen, Miss Cecilia Kay, Miss Margaret Loomis, Miss Mary Desmond, Miss Mary Boland, Miss Anna Grant, Miss Irene Phillips, Miss Eleanor Dougherty, Miss Margaret Bell and Miss Mary Spaulding. Enchantress carnations and silver ornaments formed the table decorations.

Miss Maxson Hostess.

Miss Maxson entertained with a delightful afternoon function, Saturday, at her home, No. 1332 Ingraham street, in honor of members of the S. M. Club. Pretty decorations of holly and greenery were used throughout, and a large Christmas tree laden with gifts completed the pretty scene. Miss Edith Graham, the club president, was presented with a beautiful gift from the members. A musical programme was rendered by Miss Edith Bell, Miss Lucille Roberts and Miss Grace Allen. Guests who enjoyed the affair were Miss Edith Graham, Miss Allen, Mrs. James Purcell, Mrs. W. J. Wren, Mrs. E. Arnold, Mrs. H. Schreier, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. H. Deardoff, Miss Clair Allen, Miss Lucille Graham, Miss Mary Spaulding, Miss Luntal, Miss Alma Bradley, Miss Lulu Page, Miss Lucille Roberts, Miss Alice Atwell, Miss Nellie Beaton, Miss Violet McDonald, Miss Grace Rockwell, Miss Margaret Seymour, Miss Carrie Stutsman and Miss Helen McCutchan.

Wedding Announcement.

Miss Emmalee Teter, daughter of Mrs. E. Teter of No. 909 West Third street, was married Sunday evening to Claude Otis Henry, owing to a recent bereavement in the family, the ceremony was marked by extreme simplicity. The Rev. Baker Lee read the service in Christ Church in the presence of the immediate relatives only. Mr. and Mrs. Henry will make their home temporarily in this city.

At Hotel Westmore.

Members of the Alpha Phi Alumnae Association of Southern California entertained with an informal afternoon Saturday at Hotel Westmore. Those present were: Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Mrs. R. T. Oliver, and the Misses Frances Alabaster of Pasadena, Mrs. J. C. Manning, Miss Florence Foy, Miss Florence Wiley, Miss Villa Burke and Miss Mary Crowell of Los Angeles; Mrs. A. W. Tower of Glendale, Mrs. C. F. Atkinson and Miss Genevieve Decker of Hollywood.

Afternoon Luncheon.

Mrs. Ernest Nelson of No. 197 West Twentieth street entertained with a luncheon Saturday in compliment to her sister, Miss Elsie Davidson, of the Needles, who is her house guest for the holidays. Holly berries formed the table centerpiece and covers were laid for Miss Davidson, Miss Elsie of San Diego, Mrs. Harper-Stroup, Mrs. Goresch, Miss Anderson of Needles, Mr. Howard H. Stone and Mrs. Nelson.

Santa Claus Party.

Miss Mildred Whitnag was a charming hostess recently at her home, No. 2723 Kenwood avenue, when she entertained a number of friends with a Santa Claus party. The home was canopied with ferns, mistletoe and holly, suspended from which were numerous Christmas bells.

Children's Party.

Members of the Ethel Club entertained yesterday afternoon with their annual Christmas party for children. The auditorium was gay with Christmas decorations and a large Christmas tree. Each small guest was presented with a box of candy by Santa Claus. A feature of the afternoon was the Mother Goose entertainment, given by a number of the tiny tots in costume. The programme was in charge of Mrs. E. K. Baumgardt. Following the performance, dancing was enjoyed.

To Receive.

Mrs. Lafayette Decker and Miss Myrtilla C. Decker of No. 721 South Carondelet street will be at home to their friends from 2 to 5 p.m. New Year's Day.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued by members of the Extra Nove Society of the University of Southern California for a house-warming next Saturday afternoon. Members of the faculty will be present as special guests.

Unique decorations will be used. Among the young ladies who will assist are Miss Hazel Hill, Miss Ethel Hogan, Miss Olive Sullivan and Miss Mabel Vale.

Dancing Party.

The Misses Edna and Gladys Letta, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Letta of Hollywood, were hostesses last evening at an informal dancing party as a farewell to Miss Edna Letta, who will leave this week for Millbrook, N. Y., to continue her studies.

REPUBLICAN "OPENING."

Sixth Ward Club to Give Reception Tomorrow at its New Quarters on Central Avenue.

A New Year's reception that will mark the opening of the headquarters of the recently-organized Republican Club of the Sixth Ward will be held from 2 until 9 o'clock p.m., tomorrow at its rooms, southwest corner Adams street and Central avenue. The glad hand will be extended to all comers and it is expected that a large number of visitors will be entertained. A general invitation has been extended to all Republicans of the ward. In preparation for the coming Presidential campaign, the club, which started out with nearly fifty members, has leased commodious rooms and is preparing to fit them up in a way that will draw the young and older voters together. A reading-room, pool and billiards and other forms of entertainment are to be provided, with a strict ban on liquor, and, at a time at least, the social features of the organization will predominate. Dr. E. G. Goodrich is president of the club, and E. B. Harris is secretary. Tomorrow's Reception Committee includes Robert F. Hayhurst, R. C. Nollman, E. H. Dalton, B. A. Miller, W. R. Slater and A. L. Sawyer.

BUCKET SHOPS RAIDED.

Following his promise of some weeks ago, Chief Kern ordered a second raid on the Los Angeles bucket shops. Detectives Murray and Cooks conducted the raid shortly before noon. At the alleged bucket shop of Thomas McGregor, in the Hellman block, H. Bell, telegraph operator, and Frank Abbott, who was in charge of the office, were arrested and "booked" at Central Station. They will be tried during the week. A second raid was made upon the Ramona building and F. Ogil and P. C. Wilkes were arrested and charged with violating the city ordinances.

PUBLIC SERVICE.

yesterday, but it took the jury only 12 minutes in which to bring in a verdict of guilty of burglary in the first degree. The charge was that, between 10 and 11 o'clock, the defendant entered the home of C. C. Maxon at Seventh and Vernon streets, October 23 last, and stole a quantity of silverware. Puckett pleaded guilty several days ago and will be sentenced today. Yesterday he testified against his old partner in crime, Berwick, who is said to have a record and to have been the inside of prison in Germany, France, England and America. It is also said that he is a son of a good English family, who went wrong.

INDICTED. Although already in the County Jail under a charge of perjury, José Ybarra, a former detective, was indicted by the grand jury yesterday upon a similar charge based upon the same circumstances in which he testified in the now celebrated Armas divorce case. The indictment was returned before Judge Conroy and was set at 10:00. Ybarra will be arraigned this morning. Oscar Chavez had also been charged with perjury in this same case and he is now out on bail. Others are being investigated.

ADMINISTRATRIX. Mrs. Emma S. Walker was appointed administratrix of the estate of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, by Judge Lister in the probate court yesterday. Mrs. Johnson, who was one of the pioneer women of Los Angeles, was run over by a wagon at Thirty-eighth and Central avenues on December 7, while on the way to visit her daughter, who died on December 10, from her injuries. The estate consists of about $400 worth of real estate.

TOO SICK. The attorney for George de Troost, who claims to be a French Baron, sent word to Deputy Dist. Atty. McCartney yesterday that his client was suffering from congestion of the brain and would be unable to appear for his preliminary examination on January 1. The sick Baron is charged with the embezzlement of $120 from the M. L. Cook Advertising Company.

CHARGES NEGLIGENCE. Mrs. Rena J. Bennett, widow of Thomas D. Bennett, has filed suit in the Superior Court against Sidney Watson for $500 damages for the death of her husband, who died as the result of a fall from a fourth-story building last June, while working as a bricklayer for Watson. Mrs. Bennett alleges that defective scaffolding was responsible for Bennett's fall, and that Watson was negligent in not making it secure.

CONFUSES CUSTOMERS. Asking that the California Cider Union be enjoined from using that name, the complaint in the suit of the California Vegetable Union filed in the Superior Court yesterday, against that corporation, sets forth that many customers of the plaintiff have been deceived through the similarity of names into doing business with the California Cider Union and that further permanent injury to its business is threatened by the similarity of names, as both concerns deal mainly in celery.

MUSEUM. Articles of incorporation for the Southwest Museum of Los Angeles were filed yesterday with the county clerk, by Trustees John H. Chaffee, William Lacy, Miss May E. Fay, M. H. Newman, Mrs. Clara E. Burdette, Joseph Scott and C. F. Lumsden. The museum will be devoted to the public and will be devoted to historical, archaeological, scientific and artistic collections.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the county clerk by the trustees of the Misspah Club of Los Angeles, a social organization; Ye Snow White Laundry Company, South Pasadena, capital, $10,000, and the California Cynopsis Growers' Association, capital $25,000. A certificate of reduction of the capital stock of the latter company from $50,000 shares to 9000 shares, was filed by the directors.

PUNISHED ELSEWHERE. Sheriff Hammett yesterday received a telegram from Marysville that H. L. Pickell, a hold-up man wanted here, has just been sentenced there to five years in the State Prison for a hold-up of a Chinese camp near Marysville. Pickell is being held in a Chinese camp on Compton avenue, October 18, but escaped with one of his partners, while Campbell, Crab and Sargent, the others, are now in the County Jail awaiting trial. The quintette were suspected of other hold-ups of Chinese camps.

ADOPT CHILD. Judge Monroe yesterday granted the petition of O. C. Shown and his wife, Mollie, that they be allowed to adopt Alfred Grimes, a little 5-year-old girl from a local institution.

ASK APPOINTMENT. Thomas Butler and Ann Niklas, children of Ann Smith, who died in Los Angeles in November, leaving a $25,000 estate, in cash and real estate, have filed in the Superior Court a petition asking to be appointed administrators of the estate, which is left to members of the family.

BISHOP INHERITS. Rev. D. W. J. Murphy, as executor under the will of Michael McAuliffe, who died at Hollywood, November 27, leaving a $30,000 estate, in real property and cash, has filed a petition in the Superior Court for the probate of the will. Bishop County, Rev. D. W. J. Murphy and Elizabeth McAuliffe, a sister of the deceased, are legatees under the will.

PASTOR AS EXECUTOR. Rev. M. J. Hennessey, executor under the will of Henry T. Grout, who died at Santa Monica in December, leaving a $100,000 estate, has petitioned the Superior Court for the administration of the estate to probate. The estate is left to a sister and nephew of the deceased, in California, and to relatives in Canada.

Young Hook Fined. Barbara H. Hook, a well-known young society man, whose auto has killed a young woman, and crippled a boy, was fined $50 by Justice Austin in Police Court yesterday on a charge of over-speeding at Fifth and South Broadway. The law provides that violators shall take the down-town crossings at not more than four miles an hour. Motorcycle officers testified that Hook was driving his machine at over eighteen miles an hour and barely missed running down an old woman, who was dragged from in front of the machine by bystanders.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

LANTERMAN IS IN TIGHT BOX.

HE MUST EITHER RESIGN OR STAND JURY TRIAL

Overruling of Demurrer Raised by Coroner's Attorneys Means That Police Court Has Jurisdiction in His Case—Hook Lightly Fined for Breaking Speed Ordinance.

Coroner Lanterman must stand trial on the charge of having been in an intoxicated condition during his period of office.

Yesterday morning, following a heated argument in the Police Court between Attorney Earl Rogers, representing the defense, and Prosecuting Attorney Fleming, Justice Frederickson decided the issue raised in the demurrer. He ruled that the Police Court had jurisdiction over all misdemeanor trials and that the prosecution of Coroner Lanterman came under that class.

Lanterman seemed disturbed when the court handed down its decision. He had hoped the case would be thrown out. He will be tried January 26, under a law of 1886. A jury will be selected in Justice Frederickson's court at that time and evidence will be given as to what occurred in the notorious house of "Suicide" Ida Hastings at No. 59 Ord street, the night the Coroner was arrested.

The only way Lanterman can avoid that ordeal is by presenting his resignation and many of his friends look for that action.

According to the ruling of Justice Frederickson yesterday, he is not quite clear as to what, if any, penalty can be imposed if Lanterman is convicted, other than that he shall be ousted from office. Prominent politicians are urging that if Lanterman intends to resign anyhow, as is rumored, he will avoid a lot of unnecessary misery if he takes the step now.

Los Angeles Times New Year's Annual
